

Master of Atmospheric and Near Space Sciences

2026 FALL INTAKE

Entry requirements for transfer students:

- Bachelor's degree diploma
- English Language certificate (CEFR B2 level)
- Subject-based oral exam
- Admissions interview

Application requirements for transfer students:

- Bachelor's degree diploma
- English Language certificate (CEFR B2 level)
- Passport
- Photo
- CV
- Motivation letter

Entry requirements for transfer students:

- At least 1-semester transcript
- English Language certificate (CEFR B2 level)
- Admissions interview
- Subject-based oral exam

Application requirements for transfer students:

- At least 1-semester transcript with course and grading system descriptions
- English Language certificate (CEFR B2 level)
- Passport
- Photo
- CV
- Motivation letter

Program duration & details

2 years (4 semesters) / 120 ECTS

Awarded academic degree

MSc in Atmospheric Sciences

Program description, curriculum and courses can be checked here

Application submission and exams

Examination topics can be checked here

Online application and admission process can be checked here

Selection process

Evaluation of newcomers' applications will be out within 7 working days followed by an exam and admissions interview with the selected candidates.

Evaluation of transfer students' application will be within 10 working days followed by the subject-based oral or written exam with the selected candidates.

